Dear Beatrice

A note to say I am sorry that I missed saying goodbye to you after the final session of the symposium. I wanted to thank you for the lecture you presented and your presence at the symposium.

I also wanted to thank you for the splendid Teotihuacan mural volume that will contribute greatly to the library's holdings on Mesoamerican art. You are to be congratulated for directing the corpus -

Andy joins me in saying how much we enjoyed seeing you here and having a chance to be together - we hope our paths cross with yours again soon.

Warm regards,
Hank
