Dear Professor de la Fuente,

On behalf of the deans of the Center, I am pleased to acknowledge receipt of your paper, "Olmec Sculpture: The First Mesoamerican Art," for publication in the proceedings of the Olmec symposium. Your manuscript has been forwarded to John Clark and Mary Pye, co-editors of the symposium volume. You may expect to hear from them, and at a later date, from Carol Eron of the National Gallery's Editors Office, should there be any questions about your paper.

Thank you again for contributing to the symposium volume.

Sincerely,

Therese O'Malley
