Dear Dr. de la Fuente:

Thank you so much for your prompt and thoughtful review of George Stuart's story on the Olmec, which we received early this week. As requested, I passed your comments on the colossal heads to art researcher Karen Gibbs and gave your regards to George and Gene, who just went to visit her family in South Carolina.

Now that the caption that will accompany the drawings of the colossal heads has been written and edited, I am sending it for your review. Again, some questions are noted in the margins, but please don't hesitate to comment on any of the information. The office will be closed on Monday for the 4th of July holiday, so I'll look forward to hearing from you--by fax or phone, if possible--sometime next week. (Actually, our fax machine should be working on Monday, if it doesn't run out of paper!)

Again, many thanks for your continued cooperation,

Sincerely,

Kathy B. Maher
