Dear Beatriz,

BF3C7E41D1F1

I hope that you are doing well, and that you will enjoy Christmas.

I am working on a paper for the March meeting, planning now to speak to the question of places other than the Gulf Coast where the style appears, the nature of interaction, and the relative iconography. The main focus will be on the Gulf Coast, of course. Then, I'd like to go on to what the Gulf Coast sites might tell us about the iconography and approaches to interpreting the art, subjects that might be tackled, and Maya associations and other sources that might relate to iconography.

I should have typed this!

It was good to see you in the spring. I'm looking forward to seeing you in Mexico.

Season's Greetings

With love and best wishes,

Betty Benson
